STUDENT AFFAIRS

Vice President's Office provides leadership and strategic direction to all areas of student affairs. The office also works closely with Associated Students, Inc., serving as a liaison between ASI and the university administration.

Academic Advising Center offers mandatory freshmen and transfer orientation, mandatory freshmen advising, and general education and graduation requirement advising for all students. The center engages students in a developmental process that helps them clarify and implement individual educational plans consistent with their skills, interests, and values. Contact: Beth Merritt Miller, Director, 278-6351, merrittmillerb@csus.edu

Admissions & Outreach sponsors and coordinates numerous recruitment activities and offers prospective and current students individual and group admission counseling and accurate, efficient document processing. Contact: Emiliano Diaz, Director, 278-2674, diaze@csus.edu

Associated Students, Inc. serves as the official governing body of Sacramento State students and provides experiential education, leadership opportunities, student representation and various recreational services that support the campus and greater Sacramento community. Contact: Pat Worley, Director, 278-6784, pcworley@csus.edu

Career Center provides proactive and comprehensive career services that include: career development opportunities, experiential learning activities, on-campus recruitment programs and employer networking. Contact: Beth Merritt Miller, Director, 278-6231, merrittmillerb@csus.edu

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) facilitate students' learning by helping reduce psychological symptoms and developmental stressors, cope with difficult life events, and balance academic and social life. Contact: Karen Durst, 278-6416, durstk@csus.edu

Employee Assistance Program is a cost-free, confidential resource for Sacramento State faculty and staff. EAP staffs are licensed professionals who offer assessment, brief counseling, consultation and referrals to help resolve a broad range of personal, work, and family problems. Contact: Doug Adams, Director, 278-6416, adamsd@csus.edu

Enrollment Operation Support provides technology services and operational support to the departments in student affairs. Contact Tejeshwar Chowdhary, 278-7846, tsc@csus.edu

Global Education collaborates with the Admissions and Outreach office to recruit international students, especially those enrolled in community colleges, administers programs for international visa students; and develops and implements study abroad programs. The office also partners with academic affairs to offer a variety of exchange programs for faculty. Contact: Jack Godwin, 278-6686, jgodwin@csus.edu

Financial Aid Office helps students and, in many cases, their families to search for, apply, receive, and maintain eligibility for various types of financial aid. Financial aid education is offered through individual counseling, campus marketing activities and group presentations. Contact: Craig Yamamoto, Director, 278-6980, craigy@csus.edu

Housing and Residential Life provides on-campus residents a safe, well-maintained, attractive, and affordable living-learning environment. Contact: Michael Speros, Director, 278-6655, msperos@csus.edu

Multi-Cultural Center supports the needs of diverse communities by offering educational programs and experiential leadership opportunities. The center offers a welcoming space to all who wish to learn more about themselves and others. Contact: Charlene Martinez, Director, 278-6101, ccmartin@csus.edu

Student-Athlete Resource Center provides all NCAA Division 1 student-athletes a comprehensive academic, life skills, and NCAA compliance support program. Contact: Paul Edwards, Director, 278-7796, edwardsp@csus.edu

Student Conduct Office broadly serves Sacramento State students and faculty by interpreting and disseminating information about student conduct policies and procedures. The office directly engages students who allegedly violate the aforementioned policies in a structured, timely, and educationally-based judicial process. Contact: Leonard Valdez, Director, 278-6060, valdezl@csus.edu

Student Health Center promotes the health and wellness of Sacramento State students by providing quality medical services, prospective health programs, and educational activities in a highly competent, cost-effective, and compassionate manner. Contact: Joy Stewart-James, Director, 278-6049, jsjames@csus.edu

Student Organizations and Leadership (SO&L) promotes co-curricular learning by providing students with opportunities to join organizations, participate in recreational activities, and engage in leadership education programs. Contact: Alysson Satterlund, Director, 278-7914, alysson.satterlund@csus.edu

Testing Center administers national, state, and CSU-system tests and provides direction and support for meaningful student assessment. Contact: Gloria Cisneros, Testing Coordinator, 278-6296, cisnerosg@csus.edu

University Registrar's Office provides quality support and service to students, faculty, staff and external constituents with regard to academic records, registration, enrollment data, course administration, graduation and degree verification. Contact: Dennis Geyer, University Registrar, 278-3421, dgeyer@csus.edu

University Union and The WELL exist for the benefit of students, offering welcoming and stimulating environments where students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the greater community participate in campus life. The programs, services and facilities of the Union/WELL foster personal growth and healthy decision-making, encourage social interaction and develop leadership skills. Contact: Leslie Davis, Executive Director, 278-2242, leslied@csus.edu
